

CAN YOU DESIGN A LOGO FOR KCM CHURCH TO USE? A small group are working to improve our publicity material – and we'd like to adopt a logo for the Church. So the task is "What would easily depict our Church to other people?"

- The logo must use the letters "KCM"
- It needs to be a simple design which can be easily usable
- A rough sketch is fine – don't worry about the fine detail too much
- It needs to be handed in to Michael TODAY!
- The winning entry will win a large Easter Egg

So get doodling – space below!

FOR YOUR PRAYERS:

For Bishop Christopher on his appointment as the new Bishop of Portsmouth
Those who are unwell – Michael Bailey, Gill Syms, Ethel Hunter, Roy Barker, Emma Jane, Doreen Batho, Rebecca Marsh
Those who have died – Bill McLaren, Barbara Godin, Brian Hudson
Those whose anniversary of death falls this week – Len Warne

Lent 2

9.15 am Sung Eucharist

The Quiet Room in the North Porch is available for parents and children to use.

President: The Reverend Michael Burns

Preacher: Trevor Alexander, Reader

Theme: Jesus continues his ministry of preaching and healing despite Herod's threats to kill him. As Jesus looks ahead to his arrival in Jerusalem he feels great sadness at how the people have failed to listen to, and know God. He reminds the Pharisees that Jerusalem is the place where prophets are killed.

Readings: Genesis 15/1-12, 17-18 p 15 read by Anne Throup
The story of Abraham is one where the generosity of God shines through despite everything. Christians soon saw this story as pointing to God's act in Jesus.

Philippians 3/17-4/1 p 1180 read by Anne Throup

Paul is a strong pastor of his people, leading from the front. And his eyes are on 'heaven', the place where Christians truly belong and where they see their destiny – as distinct from Rome or any other earthly place of loyalty.

Luke 13/31-end p 1047 read by Michael Burns

The place of Jerusalem in early Christian feeling and loyalty was one of great difficulty. It remained a place of 'belonging' – yet it was where Jesus had been executed, at the hands of those who ruled it. The double feeling remains.

Prayers: Judith Reeve

Hymns:

Introit: In the cross of Christ I glory NEH 379

Gradual: Psalm 27 – The Lord is my light and my salvation

Stand to sing the Gloria

Offertory: Jesu lover of my soul NEH 383

Communion: Bread of the world in mercy broken NEH 277

Anthem The Prayer of St Richard - White

Final: He who would valiant be NEH 372

Prayer, News, Action

LENT 2010 - It is not too late to come along to the Tuesday Lent Groups. Please note that there are two groups – one for the afternoon sessions and one for the evening sessions. These sessions are open to everyone from this Church and beyond – and don't worry if you want to turn up and haven't signed the list – the more the merrier!

FOR THOSE ATTENDING THE LENT COURSE:

- Please use the Vicarage driveway and space in front of the Vicarage as well as the Church car park, particularly as our regular Hall users need space to park too!
- Please bring a pen and paper or notebook for your own use.

QUIZ NIGHT – Saturday 20 March at 7.30pm. Come and make up tables of 8. Sandwiches will be served in the interval. BYO drinks. Raffle. Please sign the list in Church and let Madeline Butterworth have your money - £7 for adults (£3 for under 16's).

SILENCE IS GOLDEN – please try to ensure that unnecessary conversations before services are kept to a minimum, as people do appreciate it when a quiet and prayerful atmosphere precedes the start of our services. Some also like to remain quietly in their seats afterwards too! There is plenty of opportunity afterwards to chat to everyone when you leave the Church and have a coffee! Thank you.

POTTERS BAR TOWN WIDE CHRISTIAN AID COLLECTION needs an organising Co-ordinator to succeed Alan Doel from 2011. Further details and a job description are on the notice board.

DO YOU HAVE ANY SPARE FURNITURE? The Peace Hospice in Watford has opened a new superstore in Borehamwood and is looking to sell furniture to raise funds. They have vans and can come and collect, free, at a convenient time. If you are interested, please call 01923 330330.
