Prayer, News, Action

WALKING A LABYRINTH. St John's Methodist Church invites you to make a personal spiritual journey. This is an ancient form of prayer found in many traditions; it is an individual experience; a journey into God and into your own soul. On Sunday 29 March 6.00 – 8.00pm.

CHURCHES TOGETHER SATURDAY MORNING PRAYER.

This Prayer Meeting is held on the first Saturday of each month and is hosted by each of the Churches in Potters Bar in turn. This week it is being held at KCM. It includes scripture, hymns, prayers for our Churches, for Act 4 and for any other various needs. Light refreshments are provided.

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER - collect a leaflet giving full details of the services.

THE CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING takes place on Wednesday 22 April at 7.45pm. In advance of that we will welcome annual nominations for the posts of Churchwardens and also for six vacancies to serve for upto 3 years as members of the Parochial Church Council. Please see the list which will soon appear on the notice board and fill out the relevant form. Jean Emmans, David Simpson and Penny Thomson come to the end of their 3-year term of office on the Church Council, but they can stand again for election, if they so wish. We are grateful to Nick Maddock-Lyon for his work as Secretary, but is not standing for re-election. If you have any queries please discuss them with the Churchwardens or a member of the PCC.

CONFIRMATION 2009. A letter is available on the table for those who are interested in being confirmed as full members of the Church this year. Please take a copy. Anytime after 29 March Michael will be happy to have the names of those who would like to join the preparation groups. There will be a group for adults and a group for young people. The Confirmation Service will be held here at KCM on Sunday 11 October at 6.30pm and will be conducted by the Bishop of Hertford.
