Prayer, News, Action

FLOWERS have been given by Pauline Beckford to celebrate her great granddaughter's first birthday

MANY CONGRATULATIONS to Trevor Alexander who has now completed his Reader Training. He will be licensed as a Reader on Sunday 13 September at 6.30pm at St Mary's Church, Hitchin.

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK – thank you very much to everyone who will have worked hard this week, delivering and collecting envelopes. All envelopes should be returned to Phil Townsend/David Hartland as soon as possible. We are very grateful to David and Phil for co-organising this year.

OUTING TO WINDSOR ON 30 MAY – please see David Simpson if you would like to join the coach on this trip. Please would all those who wish to leave their car at the Church for this trip, park in front of the Vicarage or along the Vicarage driveway and NOT in the main Church car park.

MANY THANKS to all those who provided the food for last night's Concert by Simeon Wood – and also to Madeline Butterworth for her work in organizing the selling of tickets, as she does for all our events.

THE 11am COFFEE ROTA needs a couple more volunteers – once a month. Please speak to Dee Marsh or Michael if you would like to help. Full instructions will be given.

POTTERS BAR CARNIVAL ON JUNE 14th – KCM will be having a Stall as usual. Madeline Butterworth would welcome suitable items to sell – toiletries, crafts, games, small toys and costume jewelry.

PHIL GREEN recently completed the London Marathon in aid of Ripple Africa. Many of you sponsored him and would like to settle up. Phil will be in Church on May 24th and May 31st and will be happy to receive his sponsorship monies then.
